DIGITAL CREATIVES DIRECTORY

With the growing demand for artists and performers to put their work online or on digital platforms we thought it useful to provide a directory of the talented Mid North Coast creatives who may be able to help.

This is an introductory listing updated regularly and Arts Mid North Coast makes no recommendations for any one provider. We also leave it up parties to discuss fees or other arrangements that might be made for such services.

If you would like to be featured in this FREE directory, send an email to communications@artsmidnorthcoast.org
